

Big Sandy News

FRIDAY, November 27, 1908.

A jolly young chemist tough, While mixing a compound of stuff, Dropped a match in a vial And after a while They found his front teeth and one cuff.

Insure with Wallace. Life, fire accident, etc. Office near depot.

Latest wraps, half-price at Pierce's.

No meeting of the Filch Club yesterday, the same being turkey day.

One year ago (Nov. 27, 1907) the weather in Louisa was very cold, with frost and ice.

Dr. E. C. Jenks went to Ashland Tuesday to attend a convocation of Ashland Knights Templar.

The atmosphere has been quite smoky. Is this condition caused by smoke from the chimneys of prosperity, or is it from the soup houses of adversity?

A balloon recently sailed from St.
Louis to Tiger, Ga. As there are several "tigers" in Georgia since it went prohibition the news is not specific enough.

Three persons were immersed in the river at the foot of the grade last Sunday afternoon. The Rev.
G. G. Riggan, of the Baptist church administered the rite.

Attorneys G. W. Castle and R. T.
Burns have kindly given the ladies of the M. E. Church South the use of their law office for the Bazaar to be held Dec. 4th and 5th.

Letter Damron, of Pikeville, and Miss Omo Hawkins, of Millard, Pike county, were recently married. Mr.
Damron is very well known in Louisa, where he was employed a year or so ago.

The friends of Mrs. Francis Harrington will be sorry to learn that she has been compelled to go to a hospital in Buffalo, and will probably have to undergo a serious operation.

J. L. McCoy wants to be United States Marshal in the Eastern District.
McCoy was chairman of the Republican convention which nominated Judge O'Rear some years ago in this city.

Jailer Burton is at West Liberty this week, a witness in the case of Charles Johnson, charged with the murder of Boggs. The case was once tried here and a new trial and a change of venue was granted.

Last Saturday, on the Cannonsburg road, not far from Catlettsburg, John Price, of Ashland, shot and dangerously wounded Edward Field.
Field is a brother of Mayor Field, of Catlettsburg. Booz on part of Price.

Dr. Geo. T. Conley, of Louisa, was here Saturday, the guest of his brother, John J. Conley, while enroute home from a trip to Louisville.
Dr. Conley will locate at Clarksville, W. Va., after January 1st.—Ashland Independent.

Carl Layne was killed and another severely injured in an accident that occurred at 5 o'clock Monday evening, at the crusher of the plant of the Southern Bitulithic Company, corner of Central avenue and 23rd street, in Ashland.

John Purdie, aged 49, employed as a passenger brakeman on the Ashland Coal and Iron Railway, sustained injuries out at Denton, in Charter county, late Monday afternoon.
That proved fatal a few hours later.

"Beautiful Latonia" closed its gates Saturday and the pathetic statement is made that it may never have a race meeting again. Too bad. If Beautiful Latonia had closed finally twenty years ago we know of a whole lot of people who would be in much better circumstances financially today.

Mrs. James Sowards and little daughter, Elizabeth Mayo, left today for Frestonsburg, where they will visit the former's cousin, Mrs. Joe M.
Davidson. Mrs. Davidson and Mrs.
Sowards will in a few days proceed to Paintsville, where they will join Mrs. Mayo and the three will go to Louisa, where they are to be members of a house-party to be given by Mrs. A. M. Campbell and Mrs.
F. L. Stewart. Mrs. Sowards will be absent a week or more.—Pikeville Dem in Ashland Independent.

Mrs. Josephine Rice has been chosen salaried organist of the M.
E. Church.

Charles B. Wilbur has been appointed Postmaster at Peach Orchard, vice J. P. Small, resigned.

The football squad went to Ashland yesterday to win glory and glory.
Here's hoping they may be victors.

The case of Lawrence county, against the Lawrence Fiscal Court was affirmed by the Court of Appeals.

An aggregation of padded Paintsvilleans came down last Saturday and met eleven Louisians similarly "gilded" on a five-acre lot on the west side of town and played some kind of a game. It was played with a ball until somebody stole it, and then Louisa claimed the game by a score of five to a goose egg.

A very quiet wedding occurred last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Damron. Robt. Wignington, brother of Mrs. Damron, and Miss Elizabeth Wilson, of Salt Peter, W. Va., were united in marriage by Rev. Sledge, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The couple leave tomorrow for Salt Peter, where Mr. Wignington is employed.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

Fort Gay Items.

—Fort Gay Leader.

Mrs. Clabe Wellman and Mrs. J.
M. York were guests of Louisa relatives last Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. N. B. For-guson, on the 23rd inst., a daughter.

Wellman and Lykins have moved their saw mill from Vinson branch to Big Hurricane.

Mrs. W. I. Ross and Mrs. William Neal, of Garner, Ky., spent Saturday with Mrs. Ida Lockwood.

The county court was kept busy all of last week taking bonds of the various officers elected at the recent election. Wayne county will have a good set of officials for the next four years.

Oysters will be served at the Rebecca Frasher store building next Saturday night Nov. 28th. Proceeds for benefit of the Fort Gay Baptist Sunday school. Everybody invited to come.

On last Monday evening the residence of John Frasher on Big Hurricane was destroyed by fire.
There was no one at home at the time of the fire and the origin of the fire is not known. Everything Mr.
Frasher had in the way of household goods went up in the flames.

The following are recent Court of Appeals decisions from this section:

Collins vs. Williamson, etc.—Filed October 27, 1908. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Pike Circuit Court. Opinion of the Court by Judge Nunn, affirming.

Land—Deed—Consideration.—In this action to recover the purchase price for land, it is insisted by appellees that the consideration was an order on P. and R., which appellant accepted in payment of the land, and by mistake the words providing for a lien in the printed deed were not erased. It appears that at the time the order was accepted and for some time thereafter P. and R. were solvent, and the payment of this order could have been coerced, but appellant waited several years, and failing to collect from P. and R., sued appellees.—Held That under this state of fact that it would be inequitable to require them to pay for the land.

Roscoe Vanover for appellant; W.
H. Flanery for appellees.

In Memory.

Death has again visited in our community and taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Daniels, of Paintsville, their darling little son, Claude, aged five years.
Weep not, father and mother, for little Claude, for he is not dead, only asleep in the arms of Jesus who said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The home has lost a sparkling jewel, but God needed another little angel amidst his shining band and took their little darling Claude home.

Weep not, father and mother, only think of him waiting for you in heaven. Dear friends if you want to meet him in that celestial city, you can go to him but he cannot come to you.

A Relative.

John Fox, Jr., author of "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," has again published a story of mountain life in which he surpasses the scenes of "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," and many think this latest story the best from his pen. The title is "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and the scene is laid at Big Stone Gap, the time being when the boom bubble that burst at that place.
